Book Club

The Pelican Pointe Book Club is meeting on the second Friday of the month, October 11 at 6:30 pm at the home of Molly Squibb, Unit X102. Marcia Helfant will lead the discussion.

The book being discussed is "You Know When the Men Are Gone", by Siobhan Fallon. A collection of short stories, the author explores the insular and emotionally fraught world of an American army base when the husbands and fathers are sent off to war. The stories, about a group of women whose stories often go untold, are both touching and powerful. The author lived at Fort Hood while her husband was deployed to Iraq for two tours of duty.

New members are welcome.

Lunch Bunch

The Wednesday, October 16th Pelican Point lunch bunch will meet at the House of Kabob. Recommended highly by Sue Penn and Nancy Williams, the fare includes a variety of lamb, chicken, and beef dishes, etc.

A special is offered which includes chicken, beef or vegetarian kabobs with rice and salad for $6.99.

The restaurant is located at 2246 So. Colo. Blvd. -- one block after Poppies.

Please rsvp to Susan Million 303-316-7190.

Please Report Flood Damage

Provided by Susan Scott, Aide to Denver City Council President Mary Beth Susman

Denver Council District 5 suffered the most flood damage in last week's storms, but Denver County is not currently on the list to receive federal funds for assistance. The Governor, however, may be able to add Denver if there is enough evidence of reported property damage.

Please report property damage from flooding at www.DisasterAssistance.gov.
